

Availability of the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board's commercial activities inventory for 2004, as required by the Federal Activities Inventory Reform (FAIR) Act of 1998, was published in the Federal Register on November 17, 2004. The appeals procedure is outlined below. Appeals should be directed to Henry M. Valiulis, Director of Administration, U.S. RRB, 844 North Rush, Rm. 536, Chicago, IL 60611. Additional information can be obtained from Bruce Rodman, Executive Assistant, at the same address, by telephone (312-751-4932) or e-mail (bruce.rodman@rrb.gov).

CHALLENGE PROCEDURE

An interested party may submit a challenge of an omission of a particular activity from, or an inclusion of a particular activity on this list. For these purposes, an "interested party" is defined as:

1. a private-sector source that is an actual or prospective offeror for any service or has a direct economic interest in performing the activity;
2. a representative of any business or professional association that includes private-sector sources referenced in item #1;
3. an officer or employee of an organization within an executive agency that is an actual or prospective offeror to perform the activity; or
4. the head of any labor organization referred to in section 7103(a)(4) of title 5, United States Code, that includes within its membership officers or employees of an organization referred to in item #3.

A challenge to a list shall be submitted to the executive agency concerned within 30 days after the publication of the notice of the public availability of the list. Within 28 days after an executive agency receives a challenge, an official designated by the head of the executive agency shall decide the challenge and provide a written notice and explanation of the decision, including an explanation of appeal rights.

An interested party may appeal an adverse decision of the official to the head of the executive agency within 10 days after receiving a notification of the decision. Within 10 days after the head of an executive agency receives an appeal of an adverse decision, the head of the executive agency shall decide the appeal and transmit to the party submitting the appeal a written notification of the decision together with a discussion of the rationale for the decision.
